

AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS:

Please replace the claims with the ones provided in the listing below wherein status, amendments, additions and cancellations are indicated.

1. (Currently Amended) A rear illumination and reflective viewing fixture for motor vehicles comprising:

a spoiler member having a rod situated in each of its two extremities and, furthermore, a minimum of one mirror and two directionally adjustable lamps respectively positioned along the center of the ~~(inferior)~~ -inferior- lateral surface and two ends of the said spoiler member;

a left and a right mounting base for the pivotable installation of the said spoiler member onto the posterior aspect of a van or other similar category motor vehicle; and a drive mechanism consisting of:

a motor fixed onto ~~the~~ a panel at the lower lateral extent of ~~the~~ said right mounting base body;

a first bevel gear fitted onto the shaft of ~~the~~ said motor;

a second bevel gear placed onto ~~the~~ said rod at the left lateral extremity of ~~the~~ said spoiler member and enmeshed with ~~the~~ said first bevel gear, that also includes a left and a right contact element fastened to the body of ~~the~~ said second bevel gear;

two microswitches respectively installed on the left and right sides of ~~the~~ said panel of ~~the~~ said right mounting base body.

2. (Currently Amended) ~~As mentioned in Claim 1 of the~~ The rear illumination and reflective viewing fixture for motor vehicles of ~~the invention herein~~

Claim 1, ~~the~~ wherein said two directionally adjustable lamps are furnished electrical current by means of wires that are inserted through the rod at one side of ~~the~~ said spoiler member and placed in continuity with the reverse light power supply lines of ~~the~~ said motor vehicle targeted for installation and, furthermore, a starting capacitor and a relay are shunted and then connected to the reverse light power supply lines of ~~the~~ said motor vehicle.

In light of the foregoing, the application is now believed to be in proper form for allowance of all claims and notice to that effect is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,

A-Gi CHOU

By Mr. A-Gi Chou

Jan. 14, 2005